A Resolution in Loving Memory

Senior Administrative Assistant Emanuel Lang

The officers, staff and Board of Directors of the Mississippi Southern COGIC Christian Education Ministry of the Mississippi Southern First Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction COGIC, want the family of Senior Administrative Assistant Emanuel Lang to know that we gather with them to celebrate a life fulfilled and the home going of a great man. Senior Administrative Assistant Emanuel Lang contributed much to the church and the community at-large for the betterment of mankind.

Whereas: Senior Administrative Assistant Emanuel Lang was appointed Advisor to the Jurisdictional Department of Christian Education under the leadership of Director, late Elder Morris Murray, and reappointed as Senior Advisor under the leadership of the current Director, Elder Billy Ray Brown, and

Whereas: Senior Administrative Assistant Emanuel Lang was a man of great council, superlative in his support, and a man of great integrity. He worked tirelessly in all facets of the church including teacher, youth president, jurisdictional treasurer, and Dean of the C H Mason Bible School, and

Whereas: Senior Administrative Assistant Emanuel Lang was a graduate of Alcorn University and furthered his education at Kent State University, Kent, Ohio; Mississippi State University, Starkville, Mississippi and Jackson State University, Jackson, Mississippi, and

Whereas: Senior Administrative Assistant Emanuel Lang retired after 33 years as an educator in the public-school system. He holds the distinction of being the first African American teacher in the public-school system in Newton, Mississippi. He was a member of the National Education Association and the Mississippi Education Association, and

Whereas: Senior Administrative Assistant Emanuel Lang was a community leader and a noteworthy American with numerous awards, including "Man of the Year," and

Whereas: Senior Administrative Assistant Emanuel Lang was a loyal family man, husband to Mother Katherine Lang, father, pastor, and an anointed man of God.

Therefore, be it resolved, that we share in your sorrow but recognize that God has accepted into his presence a good and faithful servant.

Let it be known that God embraces in his loving arms
all who are grieving the loss of their loved ones.
Through tragic circumstance, where lives are in turmoil
Where hope turns to despair, and pain is all that is felt.
God will be with you in your sorrow,
He will uphold you in His strength and through the generosity of the support of the Christian Education Ministry and others
You will know that you are never alone.

Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution will be given to the family, the church and a copy to be placed in the archives of the MS Southern COGIC Christian Education Ministry.

Humbly submitted on the 1st day of February in the year of our Lord, 2020.

Elder Billy Ray Brown, CEM Director
